

August 20, 2008

Greetings!

It is with great pleasure that we at the Atlanta Convention & Visitors Bureau extend a warm welcome to the International Woodworking Fair, August 20 through August 23, 2008.

Our city has world-class restaurants, a festive nightlife, four major league sports teams and an abundance of cultural attractions and events that help make Atlanta the center for entertainment in the South. Atlanta's diverse restaurants feature cuisine from around the globe prepared by world-renowned chefs and served in an endless array of ambience and décor. Midtown, Buckhead and Virginia-Highlands are among the most popular neighborhoods for Atlanta nightlife. Dance clubs, sports bars and late night coffee shops offer nightlong entertainment. Buckhead, the Beverly Hills of the South, features luxurious homes, upscale shopping and the finest in dining and entertainment.

To thoroughly enjoy Atlanta's present, all one has to do is experience the city's past. From Atlanta's role in the Civil War to Civil Rights to the celebration of the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games, Atlanta's historical attractions promise a day filled with education and entertainment.

Again, welcome to Atlanta. We know you will enjoy your visit.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Spurgeon Richardson". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping underline.

Spurgeon Richardson
President and Chief Executive Officer
Atlanta Convention & Visitors Bureau