

Media Resources

Atlanta Convention & Visitors Bureau (ACVB) promotes Atlanta as a top leisure and meetings destination and provides journalists with information about the city. Below is a listing of media resources. Please contact the public relations department at pr@atlanta.net if you need additional assistance.

- Web site
ACVB's Web site, www.atlanta.net, provides instant access to the destination. From the newest hotel development to a listing of conventions, our site has everything you want to know about the city. The site also features visitor statistics, sample itineraries, story ideas, press releases and more. Journalists are also welcome to register for our e-news mailing list by visiting the site.
- Images and Video
ACVB has a collection of digital images and stock video footage (b-roll) available for non-commercial use to promote tourism in Atlanta. Please contact 404.521.6398 for more information.
- Media Visits and Editorial Tours
To assist media with travel and convention stories about Atlanta, the public relations department is available to suggest itineraries that showcase the city's numerous attractions, cultural venues and other points of interest. To most effectively meet your needs, please review the press trip guidelines on our Web site and submit a press trip request form. Please allow two months advance notice for media hosting and itinerary development.
- Brochures and Publications
ACVB produces several brochures and publications that feature the most up-to-date information about Atlanta. To request a copy, please call 404.521.6398.
